

Parent Advocacy

STEP 2 – Talk With The Principal

If working with your child's teacher is not successful, your next step should be a scheduled meeting with the principal. The principal can work with you to ensure your student is properly challenged during the school day. If needed, the principal can arrange for a Child Study Team (see the "What is a Child Study Team?" section of the ACOS Parent Resources page).