

A Tale of Tails

THE STORY

Not satisfied with coloring their ears, three rabbits named Mary, Millie and Mavis all dyed their tails different colors. They dyed their tails violet, purple and rose. Each of them also had a favorite food. Their favorite foods were carrots, cabbage and French fries. Based on the clues, match the rabbits with their tail colors and their favorite foods.

THE CLUES

1. Mary and Millie liked foods that started with the letter "C."
2. The rabbit with the purple tail did not care for either carrots or French fries.
3. Mary did not like cabbage.
4. Mavis did not have a violet tail.

Mary	Millie	Mavis
violet	violet	violet
purple	purple	purple
rose	rose	rose
carrots	carrots	carrots
cabbage	cabbage	cabbage
French fries	French fries	French fries

On With the Shoe!

THE STORY

Three rabbits named Mary, Millie and Mavis decided to wear shoes. Not wanting to dress alike, each of them chose a different color. They chose red, blue and green. Mary, Millie and Mavis all came from different families, and they all had different last names. Their last names were Hopper, Rabbetts and Harris. Based on the clues, match the rabbits with their shoe colors and their last names.

THE CLUES

1. The rabbit whose last name was Harris wore green shoes.
2. Millie Rabbetts did not wear red shoes.
3. Mavis lived next door to the Harris family.

Mary	Millie	Mavis
red	red	red
blue	blue	blue
green	green	green
Hopper	Hopper	Hopper
Rabbetts	Rabbetts	Rabbetts
Harris	Harris	Harris

Hats and Dislikes

THE STORY

Three rabbits named Mary, Millie and Mavis all went to the mall together to buy hats. They each bought a hat of a different color. The hats were aqua, plum and umber. While they were at the mall, they all talked about what they disliked the most. Each of them disliked something different. They disliked lucky charms, fur coats and rubber carrots. Based on the clues, match the rabbits with their hat colors and the things they disliked the most.

THE CLUES

1. Fur coats were never mentioned to the rabbit in the plum-colored hat because she really disliked them.
2. Mary, who did not wear an umber-colored hat, disliked lucky charms because of her Uncle Threefoot!
3. Millie did not dislike fur coats.

Mary	Millie	Mavis
aqua	aqua	aqua
plum	plum	plum
umber	umber	umber
lucky charms	lucky charms	lucky charms
fur coats	fur coats	fur coats
rubber carrots	rubber carrots	rubber carrots

Skirts and Songs

THE STORY

Three rabbits named Mary, Millie and Mavis wore skirts sometimes. Naturally, each wore a different colored skirt. Their skirt colors were forest green, olive green and jungle green. Each of the rabbits had a different favorite song. Their favorite songs were "Old Gray Hare," "Rockin' Rabbit" and "Bunny Love." Based on the clues, match the rabbits with their skirt colors and their favorite songs.

THE CLUES

1. Mavis did not like the song "Old Gray Hare," and she thought the rabbit whose favorite song was "Rockin' Rabbit" looked great in her jungle green skirt.
2. Millie did not wear an olive green skirt, and she did not like the song "Rockin' Rabbit."

Mary	Millie	Mavis
forest green	forest green	forest green olive green	olive green	olive green
jungle green	jungle green	jungle green
"Old Gray Hare"	"Old Gray Hare"	"Old Gray Hare"
"Rockin' Rabbit"	"Rockin' Rabbit"	"Rockin' Rabbit"
"Bunny Love"	"Bunny Love"	"Bunny Love"

Purses and Dances

THE STORY

Three rabbits named Mary, Millie and Mavis carried purses, but none of the purses were the same color. The purses were yellow, orange and gold. Mary, Millie and Mavis also had a different favorite dance. Their favorite dances were the bunny hop, polka and tango. Based on the clues, match the rabbits with their purse colors and their favorite dances.

THE CLUES

1. The rabbit with the gold purse did not like the polka.
2. The rabbit with the yellow purse did not like either the bunny hop or the polka.
3. Millie's purse was orange, and Mavis did not own a yellow purse.

Mary	Millie	Mavis
yellow	yellow	yellow
orange	orange	orange
gold	gold	gold
bunny hop	bunny hop	bunny hop
polka	polka	polka
tango	tango	tango

Shirts, Shorts and Nicknames

THE STORY

Three rabbits named Mary, Millie and Mavis decided to go for a walk together. They all agreed to wear a T-shirt and a pair of shorts. They also agreed that they would only wear red, yellow or gray T-shirts, and red, yellow or gray shorts. They did not tell each other what they were going to wear, but they were sure that at least two of them would wear the same combination of colors. As it turned out, none of them wore the same combination of colors! The rabbits were such good friends that they had given each other different nicknames. Their nicknames were Dewdrop, Punkin and Clover. Based on the clues, match the rabbits with the colors of their T-shirts and shorts, and their nicknames.

THE CLUES

1. None of the rabbits wore the same color for both their T-shirts and their shorts.
2. Mavis was not nicknamed Dewdrop, and she did not wear either a red or a yellow T-shirt.
3. Mary did not wear a red T-shirt or gray shorts.
4. The rabbit in red shorts was nicknamed Punkin.

Mary	Millie	Mavis
red T-shirt yellow T-shirt gray T-shirt	red T-shirt yellow T-shirt gray T-shirt	red T-shirt yellow T-shirt gray T-shirt
red shorts yellow shorts gray shorts	red shorts yellow shorts gray shorts	red shorts yellow shorts gray shorts
Dewdrop Punkin Clover	Dewdrop Punkin Clover	Dewdrop Punkin Clover

Belts, Expressions and a Race

THE STORY

Three rabbits named Mary, Millie, and Mavis each wore different colored belts. The belts were orange, rose and lavender. They each had a different favorite expression. Their favorite expressions were "Hop to it!", "What's up, Doc?" and "Whoa, Nellie!" The rabbits held a race and they finished in 1st place, 2nd place and 3rd place. Based on the clues, match the rabbits with their belt colors, their favorite expressions and their order of finish.

THE CLUES

1. Mavis finished behind Millie, and Mary finished in front of Millie.
2. The rabbit in the orange belt finished last and said, "Whoa, Nellie!"
3. The winner of the race was not wearing a rose-colored belt.
4. Millie never said, "Hop to it!"

Mary	Millie	Mavis
orange	orange	orange
rose	rose	rose
lavender	lavender	lavender
"Hop to it!"	"Hop to it!"	"Hop to it!"
"What's up, Doc?"	"What's up, Doc?"	"What's up, Doc?"
"Whoa, Nellie!"	"Whoa, Nellie!"	"Whoa, Nellie!"
1st place	1st place	1st place
2nd place	2nd place	2nd place
3rd place	3rd place	3rd place

Dogs and Food

THE STORY

Three dogs named Rex, Rona and Ralph were each a different color. They were black, brown and red. Each of the dogs had their own favorite food. They favored caviar, kibbles and pizza. Based on the clues, match the dogs with their fur colors and their favorite foods.

THE CLUES

1. The dog with the red coat loved to eat kibbles.
2. Rex thought Ralph was bragging when he said he liked caviar; he didn't think Ralph had ever even tasted caviar!
3. Rona did not like pizza.
4. The dog with the black coat liked pizza.

Rex	Rona	Ralph
black	black	black
brown	brown	brown
red	red	red
caviar	caviar	caviar
kibbles	kibbles	kibbles
pizza	pizza	pizza

Dog Collar Color

THE STORY

Three dogs named Rex, Rona and Ralph each wore different colored collars. Their collars were lime green, lemon yellow and royal purple. Each of the dogs also had a favorite thing they liked to do. They liked sleeping, barking and sniffing. Based on the clues, match the dogs with their collar colors and their favorite activities.

THE CLUES

1. The dog that liked barking did not wear either a lime green or lemon yellow collar.
2. The dog that liked sleeping the best did not wear either a lime green or royal purple collar.
3. Rex did not like sleeping or barking the best.
4. Ralph never barked.

Rex	Rona	Ralph
lime green lemon yellow royal purple	lime green lemon yellow royal purple	lime green lemon yellow royal purple
sleeping barking sniffing	sleeping barking sniffing	sleeping barking sniffing

Boot Training

THE STORY

It took some training, but Rex, Rona and Ralph finally learned to take their wet boots off before they entered the house. Each of the dogs wore different colored boots. Their boots were violet, purple and maroon. The dogs were all different breeds. They were a beagle, a poodle and a terrier. Based on the clues, match the dogs with their boot colors and their breeds.

THE CLUES

1. Rex thought the poodle and the dog in the purple boots were silly looking.
2. Rona was not a beagle or a terrier.
3. Rex was not a beagle, and Rona's boots were not violet.

Rex	Rona	Ralph
violet	violet	violet
purple	purple	purple
maroon	maroon	maroon
beagle	beagle	beagle
poodle	poodle	poodle
terrier	terrier	terrier

Sweaters and Owners

THE STORY

Rex, Rona and Ralph each had a sweater to wear in the cold weather. The sweaters were all different colors; they were navy blue, peach and yellow. The three dogs had three different owners. Their owners were named Ben, Bart and Belle. Based on the clues, match the dogs with their sweater colors and their owner's names.

THE CLUES

1. None of the names of the dogs had the same number of letters as the names of the owners.
2. Bart had given his dog a peach-colored sweater, and Belle's dog wore a yellow sweater.
3. Ralph was not owned by Bart.

Rex	Rona	Ralph
navy blue	navy blue	navy blue
peach	peach	peach
yellow	yellow	yellow
Ben	Ben	Ben
Bart	Bart	Bart
Belle	Belle	Belle

Socks, Food and Television

THE STORY

Three dogs named Rex, Rona and Ralph each wore different colored pairs of socks. Their socks were red, blue and green. Each of the dogs preferred hamburgers from a different restaurant: Murray's Meats, Bing Burgers and Hamburger Heaven. Each of the dogs had a different favorite kind of television show. They liked game shows, soap operas and sitcoms. Based on the clues, match the dogs with their sock colors, their favorite restaurants and their favorite kinds of television shows.

THE CLUES

1. The dog in the red socks liked to watch game shows.
2. The dog that liked Hamburger Heaven hamburgers loved to watch soap operas on television.
3. Rex wore green socks, and Rona's socks were not red.
4. Rex did not enjoy soap operas, and Ralph did not care for Murray's Meats hamburgers.

Rex	Rona	Ralph
red	red	red
blue	blue	blue
green	green	green
Murray's Meats Bing Burgers Hamburger Heaven	Murray's Meats Bing Burgers Hamburger Heaven	Murray's Meats Bing Burgers Hamburger Heaven
game shows soap operas sitcoms	game shows soap operas sitcoms	game shows soap operas sitcoms

Leashes, Dislikes and Tricks

THE STORY

Three dogs named Rex, Rona and Ralph each had a different colored leash. Their leashes were rose, lavender and tan. Each of the dogs had one thing that they disliked. They did not like squirrels, the mail carrier and the vacuum cleaner. Each of the dogs also had one trick that they did to perfection. Their tricks were play dead, roll over and shake hands. Based on the clues, match the dogs with their leash colors, their dislikes and their best tricks.

THE CLUES

1. The dog whose greatest dislike was squirrels had a lavender leash.
2. The dog whose best trick was shaking hands did not like the mail carrier.
3. Rona's leash was not lavender, and her trick was not playing dead.
4. Ralph did not dislike squirrels, and Rona did not shake hands.
5. Rona's leash was not rose colored.

Rex	Rona	Ralph
rose lavender tan	rose lavender tan	rose lavender tan squirrels mail carrier vacuum cleaner	squirrels mail carrier vacuum cleaner	squirrels mail carrier vacuum cleaner
play dead roll over shake hands	play dead roll over shake hands	play dead roll over shake hands

Ears, Animals and Ice Cream

THE STORY

One day, three dogs named Rex, Rona and Ralph were out for a walk together. They saw three rabbits with different colored ears. The dogs thought that was cool and decided to change their ear colors, too! They dyed their ears gold, green and violet. On the walk, they talked about their favorite animals, which were warthogs, camels and moles. They also talked about their favorite ice cream flavors, which were chocolate, banana and cinnamon. Based on the clues, match the dogs with their ear colors, their favorite animals and their favorite ice cream flavors.

THE CLUES

1. Rona thought the dog with the gold-colored ears and the dog that liked cinnamon ice cream were barking up the wrong tree!
2. Rex, who did not like warthogs, thought the green-eared dog and the dog that liked cinnamon ice cream were two milkbones shy of a meal!
3. The dog with violet ears liked camels, and Rex's favorite ice cream flavor was not banana.

Rex	Rona	Ralph
gold	gold	gold
green	green	green
violet	violet	violet
warthogs	warthogs	warthogs
camels	camels	camels
moles	moles	moles
chocolate	chocolate	chocolate
banana	banana	banana
cinnamon	cinnamon	cinnamon

The Big Dog Race!

THE STORY

Three dogs named Rex, Rona and Ralph decided to hold a race to see which of them could run the fastest. For their racing outfits they all decided to wear T-shirts and shorts of different colors. The T-shirts were black, yellow and brown. The shorts were also black, yellow and brown. However, no dog wore the same color T-shirt and shorts. When the race was over, they had finished in 1st place, 2nd place and 3rd place. Based on the clues, match the dogs with their T-shirt colors, the colors of their shorts and their order of finish.

THE CLUES

1. None of the dogs wore the same color for both T-shirts and shorts.
2. The dog in the brown T-shirt finished behind the dog in the black T-shirt and the dog in the black shorts.
3. Ralph did not finish last.
4. Rona did not win the race, and Rex did not wear a brown T-shirt.
5. Rex did not wear a black T-shirt, and he finished the race just in front of Ralph.

Rex	Rona	Ralph
black T-shirt	black T-shirt	black T-shirt
yellow T-shirt	yellow T-shirt	yellow T-shirt
brown T-shirt	brown T-shirt	brown T-shirt
black shorts	black shorts	black shorts
yellow shorts	yellow shorts	yellow shorts
brown shorts	brown shorts	brown shorts
1st place	1st place	1st place
2nd place	2nd place	2nd place
3rd place	3rd place	3rd place

Cats in Hats

THE STORY

Four cats named Bob, Barb, Billy and Beulah wore four different colored hats. Their hats were purple, rose, pink and green. Each of the cats was a different type. One was an alley cat, one was a Siamese, one was a Persian and another was a Manx. Based on the clues, match the cats with their hat colors and their cat types.

THE CLUES

1. Bob and Barb did not wear either purple or pink hats.
2. The Siamese cat wore a green hat, and the alley cat wore a purple hat.
3. The Persian cat wore a rose-colored hat.
4. Bob was not Persian, and Billy's hat was not purple.

Bob	Barb	Billy	Beulah
purple	purple	purple	purple
rose	rose	rose	rose pink	pink	pink	pink
green	green	green	green
alley	alley	alley	alley
Siamese	Siamese	Siamese	Siamese
Persian	Persian	Persian	Persian
Manx	Manx	Manx	Manx

Socks and Names

THE STORY

Four cats named Bob, Barb, Billy and Beulah all wore different colored socks. They wore red, orange, yellow and white socks. Each of the cats had a different nickname. Their nicknames were Furball, Fluffer, Muffy and Scrappy. Based on the clues, match the cats with their sock colors and their nicknames.

THE CLUES

1. Barb and Billy did not wear red socks, and neither one was called Furball.
2. Fluffer wore red socks, and Scrappy wore yellow socks.
3. Beulah's nickname was not Fluffer, and she was happy about that!
4. Billy was not called Muffy.
5. Barb did not wear white socks.

Bob	Barb	Billy	Beulah
red	red	red	red orange	orange	orange	orange yellow	yellow	yellow	yellow
white	white	white	white
Furball	Furball	Furball	Furball
Fluffer	Fluffer	Fluffer	Fluffer
Muffy	Muffy	Muffy	Muffy
Scrappy	Scrappy	Scrappy	Scrappy

Collar Colors and Sports

THE STORY

Four cats named Bob, Barb, Billy and Beulah each wore a collar of a different color. Their collars were tan, gold, peach and maroon. Each of the cats had a different favorite sport that they enjoyed. Their favorite sports were baseball, football, swimming and diving. Based on the clues, match the cats with their collar colors and their favorite sports.

THE CLUES

1. The number of letters in the colors is not the same, for any cat, as the number of letters in the names.
2. Bob and Billy had favorite sports that needed water.
3. The cat in the peach collar loved swimming.
4. The cat in the maroon collar loved baseball.
5. Beulah's collar was not gold.

Bob	Barb	Billy	Beulah
tan	tan	tan	tan
gold	gold	gold	gold
peach	peach	peach	peach
maroon	maroon	maroon	maroon
baseball	baseball	baseball	baseball football	football	football	football
swimming	swimming	swimming	swimming diving	diving	diving	diving