

Tails and Recipes

THE STORY

Four cats named Bob, Barb, Billy and Beulah thought it would be neat if they changed the color of their tails. Each of the cats chose a different color. They chose aquamarine, lavender, fuchsia and teal blue. While getting their tails dyed various colors at the local beauty shop, they discussed their favorite recipes. Their favorite recipes were crow soup, garlic mouse, pigeon pie and mouse loaf. Based on the clues, match the cats with their tail colors and their favorite recipes.

THE CLUES

1. Although they had different recipes, both Billy and Beulah liked the flavor of mouse.
2. The cat with the aquamarine tail had a prize-winning mouse loaf recipe, and the fuchsia-tailed cat's recipe did not involve the use of any birds.
3. Bob's tail was not teal blue, and Beulah was not the cat with the mouse loaf recipe!
4. Barb did not have a recipe for pigeon pie.

Shoes and Cat Fears

THE STORY

Four cats named Bob, Barb, Billy and Beulah all went to the shoe store to buy new shoes. Of course, each of them picked a different color! They picked apricot, umber, pink and brown shoes. While waiting in the store, they began talking about the one thing they feared most in the world. Naturally, none of them feared the same thing. They were afraid of snakes, ducks, dogs and violinists. Based on the clues, match the cats with their shoe colors and their fears.

THE CLUES

1. When Bob was talking to Barb and the cat in the apricot-colored shoes, he was amazed at how much they were afraid of dogs and snakes!
2. Beulah overheard the three cats and was also surprised by how much the cat in the apricot shoes was afraid of dogs.
3. The snake-fearing cat did not wear either pink or brown shoes.
4. Bob's shoes were not brown, and the cat that did wear brown shoes was afraid of ducks after being severely nibbled by one once.

Gloves and Music

THE STORY

Four cats named Bob, Barb, Billy and Beulah all decided that they needed a pair of green gloves. However, none of the cats chose exactly the same shade as any of the others. They chose forest green, olive green, jungle green and turtle green gloves. The cats also loved different types of music. They liked jazz, blues, opera and show tunes. Based on the clues, match the cats with the shades of green of their gloves and their favorite types of music.

THE CLUES

1. The opera-loving cat wore turtle green gloves.
2. The cat in the olive green gloves loved jazz.
3. The cat that loved blues wore jungle green gloves.
4. Barb and Billy did not wear forest green gloves, and Beulah did not like show tunes.
5. Billy and Beulah did not like opera music, and Billy's gloves were not olive green.

Vested Interest in Dancing

THE STORY

Four cats named Bob, Barb, Billy and Beulah liked to dress up in different colored vests and dance their favorite dances. They wore black, violet, gray and yellow vests. And their favorite dances were ballet, polka, waltz and cha-cha. Dancing can be hot work, so after they danced they would all have a drink of their favorite beverages. Their favorite beverages were root beer, lemonade, iced tea and soda pop. Based on the clues, match the cats with their vest colors, their favorite dances and their favorite beverages.

THE CLUES

1. Bob and Beulah liked either soda pop or iced tea, but the cat in the gray vest, who liked to waltz, enjoyed lemonade.
2. The cha-cha-loving cat in the violet vest did not like soda pop.
3. Barb did not waltz or cha-cha, and Beulah did not wear a violet vest or dance the polka.

Colors, Numbers and a Race!

THE STORY

Four cats named Bob, Barb, Billy and Beulah decided to have a race. For the race, they decided to wear T-shirts and shorts using the colors pink, purple, blue and brown. The cats' favorite numbers were one, two, three and four. Their order of finish in the race was 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th. Based on the clues, match the cats with their T-shirt colors, the colors of their shorts, their favorite numbers and their order of finish.

THE CLUES

1. None of the cats wore the same two colors for both T-shirt and shorts, and none of their favorite numbers matched the number in their order of finish.
2. Billy and Beulah wore nothing blue, but the race winner wore blue shorts and a pink T-shirt.
3. Bob did not wear blue shorts, but he finished the race in front of both Billy and Beulah.
4. Billy's favorite number was not two, he did not wear anything purple, and he finished behind Beulah.
5. Bob's favorite number was less than Barb's favorite number, but Beulah's favorite number was larger than Barb's favorite number.

Sporty Pigs

THE STORY

Four pigs named Hal, Herb, Helga and Helena wore different colored jackets. Their jackets were red, blue, green and yellow. They also had different nicknames. Their nicknames were Snookums, Snortums, Cuddles and Tiny. Each of the pigs enjoyed a different sport. One liked to pole vault; one liked to high jump; one liked bowling; and one liked basketball. Based on the clues, match the pigs with their jacket colors, their nicknames and their favorite sports.

THE CLUES

1. Helga and the pig in the red jacket played sports that did not use a ball.
2. Hal and the pig nicknamed Snortums played sports that did use a ball.
3. Herb did not pole vault or high jump.
4. The pig in the yellow jacket was nicknamed Tiny and enjoyed the high jump.
5. Cuddles wore a blue jacket and loved bowling.

BASIC

THE STORY

Four pigs named Hal, Herb, Helga and Helena all lived in separate houses. They each painted their house a different color. They painted them blue, white, violet and purple. The pigs were very proud of their houses and they all gave their houses different names. They named them Swine Villa, Hog Castle, Spam Towers and Pork Palace. Also, each of the pigs had a favorite bird. Their favorite birds were parrots, eagles, storks and canaries. Based on the clues, match the pigs with their house colors, their house names and their favorite birds.

THE CLUES

1. The pig that lived in the violet-colored house that was named Pork Palace loved parrots.
2. The eagle-loving pig lived in Swine Villa, which was painted white.
3. Hal and Herb did not live in either Hog Castle or Spam Towers.
4. Hal's house was not white, and Helga, who disliked canaries, did not live in a blue house.
5. The pig that loved canaries lived in Hog Castle.

THE STORY

Four pigs named Hal, Herb, Helga and Helena all wore different colored scarves. Their scarves were teal blue, plum, gold and forest green. Each of the pigs sometimes had nightmares, but they all dreamt about different things. They had nightmares about the Big Bad Wolf, pork sandwiches, ham and eggs and barbecue sauce. The pigs were great movie fans and each of them had a favorite movie star. Their favorite stars were Fred Bacon, Portia Hamilton, Poppy Portly and Oscar Ribton. Based on the clues, match the pigs with their scarf colors, their nightmares and their favorite movie stars.

THE CLUES

1. The pig in the gold scarf thought the pig in the forest green scarf, the pig who had nightmares about the Big Bad Wolf, and the pig who adored Portia Hamilton were all too thin and needed to put on some weight.
2. The pig in the plum-colored scarf had nightmares about pork sandwiches.
3. The pig who loved Oscar Ribton wore a teal-colored scarf.
4. The pig who had nightmares about barbecue sauce thought Fred Bacon was the best movie star of all!
5. Hal and Helga did not wear either plum or gold scarves, and Hal was not a fan of Portia Hamilton and never had nightmares about barbecue sauce.
6. Helena did not have nightmares about pork sandwiches and loved Poppy Portly.

Bicycles, Songs and Favorite Expressions!

THE STORY

Four pigs named Hal, Herb, Helga and Helena each owned a bicycle and they loved to ride! Of course, the bicycles were four different colors; they were olive green, royal purple, rose and lavender. The pigs loved to sing, and they each had a different favorite song. Their favorite songs were "Ham on the Range," "Pork in the U.S.A.," "Oh Suspama" and "Hound Hawg." The pigs also had four different favorite expressions. Their favorite expressions were "Drat," "Gee Whiz," "Hot Diggety" and "Yikes." Based on the clues, match the pigs with their bicycle colors, their favorite songs and their favorite expressions.

THE CLUES

1. When the pig riding the olive green bicycle fell off, the expression "Drat" was heard!
2. The pig on the rose bicycle loved to sing "Ham on the Range."
3. Herb thought the pigs riding the lavender bicycle and the royal purple bicycle looked silly!
4. Hal thought the pigs riding the lavender and the royal purple bicycles looked fine, but he did not like their singing of either "Pork in the U.S.A." or "Hound Hawg," even though he was not certain which pig was singing which song.
5. Hal never said "Drat" or "Yikes."
6. The pig on the lavender bicycle said "Gee Whiz" after bumping into Helena.
7. Helga's favorite song was not "Hound Hawg."

A Pig Finish!

THE STORY

Four pigs named Hal, Herb, Helga and Helena decided to have a race. All of the pigs decided to wear different colored T-shirts and different colored shorts for the big race. The colors were green, blue, brown and purple. No pig wore the same color T-shirt and shorts. The pigs were very serious about the race and each of them hired a different animal to help them train. They hired a skunk, a rat, a weasel and a gopher. When the race was over, they had finished in 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th places. Based on the clues, match the pigs with their T-shirt colors, the colors of their shorts, their animal trainers and their order of finish.

THE CLUES

1. No pig wore the same color for both T-shirt and shorts.
2. Herb finished in front of Hal and Helena but behind Helga, while Hal did not finish last!
3. The winner wore a green T-shirt, and the 4th place finisher wore green shorts and was trained by the weasel.
4. The pig trained by the rat finished just one place behind the pig in the blue T-shirt and purple shorts.
5. Hal's T-shirt was not purple, and Helga was not trained by a gopher.

THE STORY

Five chickens named Bea, Cindi, Daphne, Elsie and Frannie loved to get together to dance. However, the dances were always wild affairs because each of the chickens moved to a different dance. They liked the tango, bunny hop, limbo, square dance and ballet. When they grew tired of dancing, they would sit around and talk. One day, the chickens revealed their greatest fears. They were afraid of foxes, hawks, deep-fryers, hyenas and falling skies. Based on the clues, match the chickens with their favorite dances and their biggest fears.

THE CLUES

1. Bea thought the chickens that were afraid of deep-fryers and falling skies were silly and told them so.
2. Cindi agreed with Bea about deep-fryers and falling skies, but she thought being afraid of hyenas in America was pretty silly, too!
3. The ballet-dancing chicken was afraid of hawks.
4. The limbo-dancing chicken was afraid of hyenas, and was glad that Bea did not think she was so silly.
5. Cindi did not dance ballet, and neither Daphne nor Elsie danced the limbo.
6. The chicken that did the bunny hop was afraid of deep-fryers.
7. Cindi and Daphne were not square dancers.

Elephant Food and Fun

THE STORY

Five elephants named Al, Art, Anne, Alice and Arlene had five different favorite foods. Their favorite foods were trees, corn flakes, peanuts, doughnuts and coconuts. The elephants also enjoyed five different favorite activities. They enjoyed chasing lions, swimming, pole vaulting, hula hooping and stomping things. Based on the clues, match the elephants with their favorite foods and their favorite activities.

THE CLUES

1. The corn flakes-loving elephant loved to play with a hula hoop.
2. The tree-eating elephant and the elephant that loved to stomp things thought the pole-vaulting elephant was very athletic.
3. Anne, Alice and Arlene did not eat trees or coconuts.
4. Al did not swim, stomp things or eat trees.
5. Art, Anne and Alice did not enjoy swimming, but one of those three liked peanuts and another one loved corn flakes.
6. Anne did not play with a hula hoop.

THE STORY

Five elephants named Al, Art, Anne, Alice and Arlene decided to have a race. The elephants decided to do it right and went out and hired jockeys. The jockeys were named Bobo, Mopey, Lumpy, Wolfie and Honey. The jockeys were five different animals; they were a warthog, newt, hamster, monkey and baboon. When the race was over the elephants had finished in 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th places. Based on the clues, match the elephants with their jockey's names, their jockey's animal types and their order of finish.

THE CLUES

1. Anne finished one place behind Arlene but was not last, and Alice finished one place behind Anne but was not last, while Arlene finished one place behind Art.
2. Bobo the baboon finished in 3rd place, and Honey the hamster finished one place behind Bobo.
3. Lumpy the monkey finished one place behind Mopey the newt.
4. Al did not have a monkey on his back!
